

THIS WEEK...

THIS WEEK'S LESSON: PALM SUNDAY - JESUS' TRIUMPHANT ENTRY

LESSON SUMMARY:

Ask your child what they learned about this week:

Jesus and his friends head to Jerusalem. Two disciples get there first and borrow a donkey colt for Jesus to ride. He rides triumphantly down the road, and the crowds spread branches and robes in his path. They call out praises, declaring that Jesus is the King. Luke 19:28-40; Matthew 21:1-11; Mark 11:1-11; John 12:12-16

HANGING OUT:

Make this week's lesson real:

One day this week, lay some old towels along a hallway or common area of your house. Whenever you pass by or walk on the path, remember that King Jesus lives in your house! Praise him! At the end of the day, pick up the towels and talk together about how you can honor Jesus as a King all the time.

AT DINNER:

Here are some great discussion starters:

- What would be the best part about being a king or queen?
- How is Jesus like what you'd expect a king to be like? How is he different?
- If a king was going to be in a parade right near your house, what would you do?

AT BEDTIME:

Quiz your child on this week's memory verse:

"For, at just the right time Christ will be revealed from heaven by the blessed and only almighty God, the King of all kings and Lord of all lords" (1 Timothy 6:15).

PARENT TIME:

What you need to know:

Jesus is the King. Although your kids might not live in a country ruled by a king, they've probably seen enough movies and read enough books to understand how powerful and special a king is. They may also see celebrities who are treated like royalty. Use this lesson to help kids see that Jesus deserves that kind of honor, too.
